Georgia Tech

A Vital K-12 Partner

Resources for Students & Parents

Helping to educate Georgia's youth in science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) is an important priority for Georgia Tech. By partnering with educational groups, state agencies, schools, corporations, and opinion leaders throughout the state, we are leveraging our resources to increase student engagement and performance.

Summer Programs
http://b.gatech.edu/LQgwjm

Georgia Tech and Georgia Tech Savannah offer STEM summer programs such as Mobile App Development, LEGO Robotics, and LEGO Artbotics. Pricing varies. Some programs offer financial aid for families on Free and Reduced Lunch. Aid is awarded as available.

Saturday Programs (K.I.D.S. Club)
https://kidsclub-ceismc.gatech.edu

Georgia Tech and Georgia Tech Savannah conduct hands-on STEM Saturday programs focused on increasing interest in science, math, engineering, and technology. Sessions are offered for elementary through high school age students and parents.

Distance Calculus
www.admission.gatech.edu/distancecalculus

Georgia Tech delivers technology-assisted, advanced calculus courses to over 300 high school students annually. Participating students are better prepared for STEM study at any college and more competitive for acceptance and access to college. They also earn college credits while in high school.

Georgia Tech Promise Scholarship
www.finaid.gatech.edu/promise

The Institute is committed to putting a Georgia Tech education within reach of every qualified Georgia resident, regardless of family income. The G. Wayne Clough Georgia Tech Promise program provides qualified Georgia residents from low-income families a full scholarship – tuition, fees, books, room, and board – allowing students to graduate debt free.
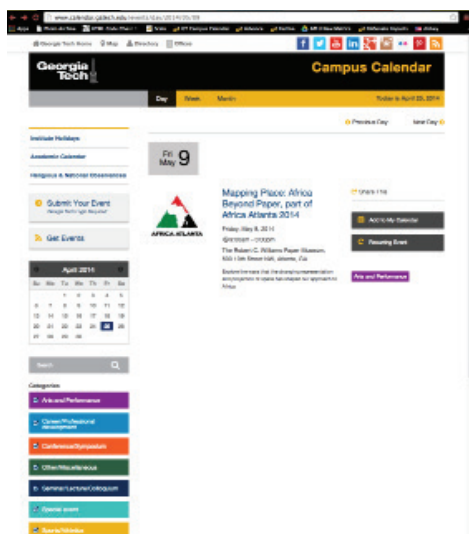

Cultural Events on Campus
www.calendar.gatech.edu

Georgia Tech regularly hosts performances, lectures, and conferences that are open to the public, often with no fee. Campus events are posted online and updated daily.
